"MY YOKE IS EASY AND MY BURDEN LIGHT."

Our world and society do not expound gentle and meek ways of living. In fact, it is the "little ones" who get pushed aside by the world's powerful. The meek are not only victimized, they are also ridiculed and taken advantage of and even killed. So, strength and determination are required to oppose the exploitation of the powerless so that they can have access to full human life. How do we balance being "the little ones" Jesus praises God for with our need at times to use strength and force to prevent people being violated? That is a hard question to answer. How can the strong also be meek and gentle, one of Jesus' "little ones?" Strength and having influence do not cancel out meekness, gentleness and reliance on God.

Jesus takes on for himself the identity as God's wisdom and offers his yoke to those who would accept him. People might be learned in religious rules, customs and teachings, but our primary source for understanding God's ways does not come from that knowledge. It comes from receiving Jesus and his message. In fact, scrupulous observance of the law can make one blind to the Spirit's freedom Jesus is offering us. Jesus claimed a fuller knowledge of God than can be attained by mere human pursuits - even with the most well-intentioned religious efforts. He says, "All things have been handed over to me by my Father." "All things" – the fullest revelation of God which we find in Jesus. He is ready to reveal "all things" about God to us.

Jesus was speaking to the poor, illiterate and often oppressed. They were preoccupied, struggling to make it from one day to the next. They did not have the luxury of time and education to study the laws and traditions of their faith the way the Pharisees did. Jesus accused the Pharisees of putting heavy burdens on the poor and not lifting a finger to lighten their load. Those struggling to survive from one day to the next could not read or study the laws, hence they would unconsciously break them and, as a result, be condemned by the more religious elite.

Jesus invites the overburdened to "Come to me." He offers them his yoke, the acceptance of the God of forgiveness and love he preached. Now, through Jesus, they would know God's forgiveness and learn Jesus' way of life. The question could be asked of us as well: doesn't Jesus' message about God's love and readiness to forgive give us a lighter load to bear and a sense of access to God in times of need?

Deadline for Bulletin: 10.00am Thursday

DOMINICARE In this time of social distancing and home isolation for older members of our Parish Community it is timely to draw your attention to a phone number that appears each week on the front of the Dominican, namely that of Dominicare. Dominicare has been part of the parish for decades and is simply a chance for people to help out a fellow parishioner with little tasks like lifts, shopping, nursing home visits and even changing light bulbs. If you are in need of help, we will do our best to find someone to help out. Leave us a message on 0481 296547 or call the Parish office at 9912 6870 ext. 3.

PARISH RESOURCES Parishioners who don't have internet access and prefer to stay at home can receive the Dominican or other parish resources by contacting the parish office at 9912 6870 or via email secretary@stdominics.org.au and someone will drop them in your mailbox.

NEWS FROM THE PRIORY Having renewed their vows on the feast of Saints Peter and Paul earlier this week, Brothers Christian and Sebastian will be away from the priory for the remainder of the year: they are being sent on pastoral placement. Brother Christian will be going to Adelaide to help out in the schools and parishes there, and Brother Sebastian will be going to Sydney to assist in the university chaplaincy teams and parishes in that city. We wish them well during their time away from Melbourne and look forward to seeing them both when they return in the new year.'

THE CHURCH HEATERS are now switched on for the winter. The pipes under the seats will get hot.

SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE POLICY

Earlier this year Archbishop Comensoli informed all parishes that the Commission for Children and Young People will be auditing Parishes in the second half of this year. Whilst a date for this audit has not been set, it is important that we are all collectively working ensure that our Parish is complying with the Safeguarding Framework and are safe spaces for children, young people and the vulnerable.

In accordance with Archdiocesan Guidelines and Victorian State Legislation it is now mandatory for all volunteers (with exception to those under the age of 18 years) to have a current Working with Children Check (WWCC) The WWCC can be completed online and as volunteers there is no cost involved. Many volunteers probably have this check already but for those who do not it is now paramount that this course of action be followed through in order to volunteer in our parish. In order to keep our parish records accurate and up to date and to comply with the legislation, please make sure that our office has a copy of your current WWCC. This can either be emailed to secretary@stdominics.org.au or dropped into the parish office.

Anyone who would like assistance, please contact the parish office on 9912 6870 and we will be happy to assist you.

Thank you for your cooperation.

JUSTICE & PEACE GROUP NOTES

St Ignatius of Loyola 31 July

Ignatius, in his enormous legacy, gave us another approach to discernment. Discernment is more than a process that we use in our secular world, it has a role in our Christianity.

It's worth applying discernment as " the prayerful attentiveness to God's presence in us and in the world, and openness to answering God's call to us, both personally and collectively". Social Justice Diary 2020

PRAYER TO ST JOSEPH

from the Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne

St Joseph,

You were receptive to God working in your life.

Help us by your prayers at this time of trial.

You kept Jesus and Mary under your watchful care: may your prayers assist our local Church to respond to those in need.

You taught the Christ Child your trade and prayers: help us to follow his example of love.

You were part of God's plan for all humanity: assist us to be vigilant and responsible this day.

You spent your life in service: may we be mindful of others, particularly the elderly and vulnerable, caring for them in these difficult days.

You trusted in the clear primacy of God over all history and every situation: help us to grow in faith and pray to the Father,

Thy will be done.

Amen
