COME TO THE WEDDING

In today's gospel, there are two parables that are neatly tied together. The first begins with a king, who wanted to give a big wedding banquet for his son. The second starts with how we are expected to respond to an invitation with good faith. What Jesus is exposing is how God constantly invites us to come and celebrate, and how we should participate.

The king invited all his distinguished guests and political allies. It was a royal, festive occasion. But all the invited guests refused to attend. He was stunned that none of the invited guests wanted to come. Insulted though he was, the king showed restraint and sent his servants out again to have them come. "Look at what I have prepared for you guests. Come!" But the invited guests didn't care. What is even worse is that some of them beat and killed some of the king's servants who had brought the message. At last, the king had to send his servants out on the roads, inviting people off the streets to come to the palace. Sure enough, common people poured into the palace to celebrate the marriage of the prince.

In the context of Matthew's gospel, the parable explains why God turned from the Jews and gave the promise of salvation to the Gentiles: They accepted Jesus as the Christ; the Jews refused. The kingdom of God is at hand. The table is spread. The banquet hall must be filled. If you're not willing to put God first, your seat will be given to someone else.

In the second parable, as the king mixed and mingled with his guests, he noticed one that was not wearing a proper wedding garment. He was disrespectful. In Jesus' day, guests coming to a royal banquet were expected to wear festal garments. It meant the best clothes you had, freshly washed. Wearing festal garments indicated one's (full) participation in the joy of the feast. Not wearing a festal garment indicates that he wasn't there to honour the king and celebrate the marriage of the prince, he was there to have free food and drink. The way he dressed could even be interpreted as a sign of disregard. The king had every reason to throw him out.

At the Eucharist, we feed at the feast God has provided God's people. Gathered for a short time at worship, God has drawn strangers and friends together. We are in need of forgiveness and God removes our reproach. We are hungry and thirsty for a food and drink that will sustain us in faith and God provides it from the altar, a feast of rich food and choice wines. Here our hunger for God is satisfied.

Fr Peter Toan Nguyen OP, PP

28TH SUNDAY YEAR A —A REFLECTION

Wednesday of last week was the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary. The feast's original title was Our Lady of Victory, having been established by Pope St Pius V in 1571 to acknowledge the role of Mary's intercession in the victory of the combined fleet of the Papal States over that of the Ottoman empire in the Gulf of Petras off the west coast of Greece.

The Pope had asked all of Rome to pray the Rosary at the time its navy engaged the more powerful Ottoman flotilla in battle. And, in fact, at a crucial moment in the lead up to the confrontation, a change in the direction of the wind had favoured the Papal fleet, enabling its squadrons to take up their planned positions before making contact with the opposition.

The praying of the Rosary in Rome in October 1571 was associated with great need, and as Pope St John Paul II noted in his Letter on the Rosary of 2002, "the Church has always attributed particular efficacy to this prayer, entrusting to it the most difficult problems." At a time of pandemic, with all its related challenges, it is good to recall this.

St John Paul II attributed to the Rosary both "the simplicity of a popular devotion [and, as well] the theological depth of a prayer suited to those who feel the need for deeper contemplation." He also drew attention to its remote origins "in the prayer ropes used by the desert fathers of the 4th century to count the repetitions of the Jesus prayer [Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner] and thus its correspondence to the form of prayer which took root in the soil of the Christian East."

For John Paul II the Rosary enables a person to "sit at the school of Mary, contemplate the beauty on the face of Christ, and to experience the depths of his love." He thus reminds us of the ultimate context of the Rosary, a prayer that, while seeking Mary's help, draws us into the love of God in Christ.

2020 CATHOLIC MISSION PARISH APPEAL

Next weekend our parish will be holding the annual Catholic Mission Church Appeal. This year we are invited to partner with the Church in Cambodia, which is reaching out to those who have been affected by disability and giving them hope and support to live a fulfilling life. Chen was just 16 years old when he lost both his legs in a landmine accident. Knowing that his life would never be the same, he felt hopeless, until he and his family were approached by the Arrupe Centre. Led by Bishop Enrique Figaredo Alvargonzalez, the Arrupe Centre provides children like Chen with support and opportunities they may not access otherwise. Next week you will be offered the opportunity to personally partner with the Church in Cambodia as a monthly giving partner, with all gifts specifically directed to support community and child focused programs in Cambodia. Catholic Mission has set up an option for people to make a donation using the mobile phone. The process is simple: one only needs to send the word "GIVE" to the number: 0488 854 436. This prompts an immediate reply which provides a link to a platform to make a donation. Freecall: 1800 257 296 catholicmission.org.au/cambodia

PRAY THE ROSARY ONLINE WITH BR OLIVER - THURSDAY 15th OCTOBER 10AM

Next Thursday we will pray The Glorious Mystery to remind the faithful of His Resurrection and the glories of heaven. Both the divinity and humanity of Jesus are presented in the Rosary mysteries. Only God could be born of a virgin, rise from the dead, and ascend into heaven, and yet only a man could be born, get lost, be found, suffer, and die. Meditating on these Mysteries helps Catholics confirm that Jesus is both divine and human. So join us on Zoom to pray the Rosary on Thursday 15th October at 10am by clicking on the link
